

5th Congress of University Centers of Labor Relations and Labor Sciences

(Tribute to ERLAC's 50th Anniversary)

A Coruña, 20 - 22 July 2022

Labor Relations and Human Resources in the framework of Digital Transformation

The theme of this Congress is labor relations and human resources in the framework of digital transformation.

Under five thematic lines we invite participants and those interested in the event to reflect on the great challenges of our labor reality both from the legal perspective, such as human resources management, its social implications and other related aspects, including the impact of these on our teaching practice and reflection on the degree in Labor Relations and Human Resources.
